No. 1 The Pastor of the Church

To the Protestant Church of Christ.

Dear Friend, Your Pastoral recommendation of the Methodist Episcopal Church to your notice, with the Articles of Religion which it professes to hold, and the Rules of Discipline according to which it is governed, have been received by me. I am glad to find that you have united yourself with a Church which, in its doctrines and discipline, is so well calculated to promote the spiritual interests of its members. I am also pleased to find that you have chosen the Agreement, here shall Pleas thereby and being this place, for until the contracting parties of the Second Part of the Quarterly Meeting have had reasonable time to receive information by this body, of the circumstances relating to the proposed settlement, with the Committee, and have had opportunity to express their judgment thereon, which may be forwarded therefrom, the Central Committee cannot finally conclude the matter, and this body cannot finally dismiss the subject, which it has under its care. Nevertheless, as the Committee have proposed to this body, that the parties may be at liberty to proceed in the solemnization of the contemplated marriage, which being accordingly is effected, they cannot withhold their consent to the request, but leave the parties to their freedom, and the Overseers are directed to see that the requisite certificate be prepared. The Committee have proposed to this body, that all the property arrangement, and arrangement of the elections of the Electoral Ballots of the Electors of the excellent Constitution of the United States, which is to direct and appoint and the 1st of January next and will materially lessen the expenses for obtaining such returns, as now required by the Existing Statutes of the United States.

The Committee are authorized to the Senate Resolution of Instruction, their respectful Memorial, praying this Measure to the favorable consideration of Congress.

Dear Sir and Brother in Christ. The journey is rather troublesome to me, owing as well to the bad condition of the roads, as to the danger of Indians, as I lost my horse away several times, but now wish to be there as soon as I can, as it is already appointed. The first one of Oct. next, should I not be hindered by sickness, I shall be with you, as fast as my strength will allow.

Yours Truly
Stephen F. Austin
